

William P. Carlucci serves as a judge on the Court of Common Pleas of Lycoming County, effective August 5, 2022. He was formerly a member of the Williamsport law firm of Elion, Grieco, Carlucci & Shipman, P.C., practicing for over thirty years in commercial and real estate litigation, contract negotiation and drafting, and commercial collections. Between 1981 and 1984, Judge Carlucci served Lycoming County as an Assistant District Attorney. He is a 1976 Magna Cum Laude graduate of Lycoming College, and a 1979 graduate of the Temple University School of Law. In 2006, Lycoming College honored him as its Alum of the Year.

Judge Carlucci is a member and Past President of the Lycoming Law Association, and has received both the LLA 2005 Equal Access to Justice Award (pro bono legal service to the indigent), and the LLA 2013 William E. Nichols Community Service Award (community service outside of the law). He served three separate terms as a member of the Pennsylvania Bar Association Board of Governors, and served as a member of the Board of Directors of the Pennsylvania Bar Institute (continuing education arm of the PBA). From 2005 to 2006, Judge Carlucci served as the President of the 28,000 member Pennsylvania Bar Association. He served for six years on the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania Interest on Lawyers' Trust Accounts (IOLTA) Board, including one year as Chair.

Judge Carlucci has served as Past President of the Kiwanis Club of Loyalsock Township, Kiwanis Lt. Governor, Life Member and Past President of Loyalsock Volunteer Fire Company No. 1, a former member of the Loyalsock Township Planning Commission, a former member of the Ski Sawmill Ski Patrol, and a former member of the Loyalsock Township Board of School Directors. He has been continuously certified as an Emergency Medical Technician for over forty years. He is a parishioner of Saint Ann Church, where he has been a Lector for over forty years.

Judge Carlucci is a lifelong member of the Boy Scouts of America, including over forty years of service as an adult volunteer and over thirty years on the Executive Board of the Susquehanna Council, BSA. He twice served a two-year term as President of the Susquehanna Council. In 1989, the Susquehanna Council presented him with its highest volunteer honor, the Silver Beaver. Between 1983 and 1999, he served as an adult advisor to five separate backpacking contingents to the Philmont Scout Ranch in Cimarron, New Mexico. Beginning in 2003, Judge Carlucci served for ten years as a member of the Advisory Committee of the Boy Scouts of America National High Adventure Sea Base in Islamorada, Florida. He is a recipient of the Order of the Arrow Founder's Award, presented to a member "who personifies the spirit of selfless service."

Judge Carlucci is married and has three children and a grandson.