

LYCOMING COUNTY
DIVORCE UNDER 3301(C)(1)
SELF-HELP KIT

REMEMBER

The law often changes. Each case is different. This self-help kit is meant to give you general information and not give you specific legal advice.

DIVORCE PROCEDURE

These forms are designed for parties who agree to be divorced and will cooperate with one another in signing the required paperwork. These forms are for requesting the entry of a divorce decree only, however, and are not designed for complicated divorce issues. To deal with these matters, you will need additional forms that are not included in this packet and you will need to hire a lawyer. Examples of a complicated divorce matter include a request to divide property, receive alimony, or for payment of lawyers' fees and expenses. In addition, if you wish to proceed under the law which presumes consent to divorce by the perpetrator of a personal injury crime against you, Section 3301(c)(2) of the Divorce Code, you cannot use these forms. Instead, you may get forms by visiting the state website at: <http://www.pacourts.us/learn/representing-yourself/divorce-proceedings>

BE WARNED THAT IF YOU FAIL TO RAISE A CLAIM FOR ALIMONY, DIVISION OF PROPERTY, LAWYERS' FEES OR EXPENSES IN YOUR DIVORCE COMPLAINT, YOU WILL LOSE ALL RIGHT TO MAKE SUCH CLAIMS ONCE THE DIVORCE DECREE IS ENTERED.

General information that you should know before filing for divorce:

The self-help packets provided by the court are only for simple, uncontested divorces. Generally, this means:

- the spouses must consent to a divorce OR be separated for at least 1 year;
- there are no custody or support disputes; and
- neither spouse wants to make a claim for property, money, or debt division against the other spouse.

MARITAL PROPERTY

If you want to pursue a simple, uncontested divorce, you must be sure that you and your spouse do not have any “marital property” that should be divided. Here are some examples of property that could be marital property, which spouses often do not consider:

- retirement/pension plans (other than Social Security)
- the increase in value of real estate owned by one spouse before the marriage
- property purchased during the marriage, but titled in only one spouse’s name
- a bank account in one spouse’s name

If you want property from your spouse, you must make a claim before the divorce is final. If you file for divorce, your spouse can make a claim for property or money against you. If you have any concerns about marital property, get advice from a lawyer about your particular situation before you file.

MARITAL DEBT

If either spouse created debt during the marriage, but before the date of separation, the court might order the other spouse to contribute to paying that debt. This is very important if the debt is only in one spouse’s name. By using the simple, uncontested divorce forms, you are waiving any claims you might have to make the other spouse responsible for all or part of the marital debt that is not in their name.

SPOUSAL SUPPORT, ALIMONY PENDENTE LITE, and ALIMONY

Spousal support is support that you might be eligible to receive from a spouse after separation, but before a divorce is final. Alimony pendente lite is alimony paid only while the divorce case is pending in court and could help you pay an attorney or court costs. Alimony is paid after a divorce is final and depends upon a number of factors, including the length of the marriage and financial positions of both parties. If you have any concerns about support or alimony, get advice from a lawyer about your particular situation.

GETTING SOCIAL SECURITY BASED ON YOUR SPOUSE'S EARNINGS

Even though you are getting divorced, in the future you may be eligible to receive up to 50 percent of your spouse's Social Security benefits (retirement or disability) if:

- You were married at least 10 years;
- You have been divorced at least 2 years;
- You and your ex-spouse are at least 62;
- You have not remarried; and
- You are not entitled to Social Security benefits on your own earnings record that are more than the divorced spouse benefit.

Your ex-spouse does not have to be currently receiving Social Security benefits and does not have to agree that you get spousal benefits. It also doesn't matter if your ex-spouse gets remarried. The amount of Social Security benefits that your ex-spouse is entitled to will not be affected (reduced) by you receiving divorced spouse benefits. To check how divorced spouse benefits would apply to your specific situation, go to your local Social Security Office or check the website: www.ssa.gov.

STEP ONE: The Notice to Defend and Complaint with Verification

A divorce case is started with the filing of a “Complaint”. There are two forms that make up the Complaint; a “Notice to Defend and Claim Rights” must be attached on top, and the Complaint for Divorce, which ends with a “Verification”, must be attached on the bottom. The Complaint is filed in the Prothonotary’s Office. You must pay a filing fee (unless you have been granted a fee waiver, and this request is to be filed with your Complaint). The caption at the top of the forms includes the County’s name, your name, your spouse’s name, and the docket number assigned to your case by the Prothonotary. This caption must be identical on all documents filed in your case, no matter which party is filing a document.

How to Complete Step 1

1. Complete all three pages of the Divorce Complaint following the detailed instructions on the next page.
2. After you have filled out the Complaint, make two copies. (If you are also requesting to have the filing fee waived, fill out a Petition to Proceed Without Payment of Fees and Costs and make one copy of that form.)
3. File the Complaint (and the fee waiver petition, if you are using it). Take the original(s) and the copies to the Prothonotary’s office. They will time-stamp the original(s) and the copies. They will keep the original Complaint in their file and return the copies to you. (If you have filed a Petition to Proceed Without Payment of Fees and Costs, they will send the original petition with proposed Order to the Judge and keep your copy in their office; you will get your copy back once the Judge signs the Order, showing whether the petition was granted or denied. If the Petition is denied, the Prothonotary will send you a letter telling you the fee that must be paid.)

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE DIVORCE COMPLAINT

FEE WAIVER INTRODUCTION

This form is used to make the request to let you file your divorce complaint for free. You will need to tell the Judge about your financial situation so the Judge can decide whether or not you should pay the fees.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FEE WAIVER PETITION

1. At the top of the first page, the “Order to Proceed Without Payment of Fees and Costs”, write your name on the line above the word “Plaintiff” and your spouse’s name on the line above the word “Defendant”. That is all you write on this page.

5. Make one copy of these three pages. You will take the original and copy to the Prothonotary’s office when you file the Divorce Complaint.
6. Once the judge reviews your information, the judge will make a decision. You will receive a copy of the Judge’s Order in the mail. If the Judge grants your petition, you will not have to pay the fees. If the Judge denies your petition, you will have to pay the fees before your divorce action proceeds. In that case, you will receive a letter from the Prothonotary telling you the amount to pay.

STEP TWO: Service of the Complaint

After filing the Notice to Defend and Complaint, these documents must be served on the other party within thirty (30) days of the date they are file-stamped. (If the other party does not live in Pennsylvania, the time requirement is extended to ninety (90) days.)

Service must be made by either (1) acceptance of service, (2) regular and certified mail, or (3) personal service.

If service is not completed within 30 days (or 90 if the other party does not live in Pennsylvania), you must complete and file a Praecipe to Reinstate the Complaint. The date you file this praecipe re-starts the clock for service and you will have another 30 days to serve the other party (or 90 days if the other party does not live in Pennsylvania). If you again do not complete service within the new time period, you may file another praecipe to reinstate the Complaint. You may file this as many times as you need to, but if you continue to have problems completing service, it is recommended that you speak to an attorney. You may not proceed until proper service has been made.

How to Complete Step 2

1. Decide how you are going to serve the defendant and choose the correct form accordingly. Follow these instructions for the form you are using:

a) Acceptance of Service – Give the time-stamped copy of the Notice to Defend and Complaint to the defendant. After being given the documents, the defendant must sign the Acceptance of Service. Keep this Acceptance of Service, to be filed. MAKE SURE THE DEFENDANT DOES NOT SIGN/DATE THE ACCEPTANCE OF SERVICE BEFORE THE FILE-STAMPED DATE ON THE COMPLAINT.

b) Service by Mail – You will need to make an extra copy of the Notice to Defend and Complaint. Mail one of the time-stamped copies of the Notice to Defend and Complaint to the defendant by regular mail and the other one by certified mail, return receipt requested, restricted delivery (you must specify this type of mailing at the Post Office). Wait for the green card to be returned to you and if it is signed by the defendant, make a copy of it for your records and tape the original, with the signature side showing, to a blank piece of paper. Fill out an Affidavit of Service by Mail and attach the paper with the green card on it.

If the certified mail is returned with the notation that it was refused, wait until it has been 15 days since you mailed the Notice to Defend and Complaint to the defendant and, if the regular mail envelope is not returned to you, fill out an Affidavit of Service by Mail. Make a copy of the refused certified mail envelope for your records and then attach the original envelope to the Affidavit of Service by Mail.

If the certified mail is returned with the notation that it was unclaimed, you must use another form of service.

c) Personal service – an adult, other than you, may personally hand the time-stamped copy of the Notice to Defend and Complaint to the other party. This may be the Sheriff, a private courier service, or any reliable third party. The person who hands the papers to your spouse must sign a completed Affidavit of Personal Service.

2. After you have served your spouse and have the completed Acceptance of Service, Affidavit of Service by Mail or the Affidavit of Personal Service, make one copy.

3. Take the original and the copy to the Prothonotary's office and file it. The Prothonotary's office will keep the original and return the copy to you – this is for your records.

ACCEPTANCE OF SERVICE INTRODUCTION

This form is used when you choose to serve the Divorce Complaint on your spouse by you, yourself, handing a time-stamped copy of the Notice to Defend and Complaint to him or her. After being given the documents, your spouse must sign the Acceptance of Service. (If your spouse won't sign an Acceptance of Service, you must choose one of the other methods of service.)

INSTRUCTIONS FOR ACCEPTANCE OF SERVICE

1. At the top of the "Acceptance of Service", write your name on the line above the word "Plaintiff" and your spouse's name on the line above the word "Defendant". Write your case number on the blank line after "No.". That is all you write on this page.
2. After you hand a time-stamped copy of the Notice to Defend and Complaint to your spouse, have him or her put a check mark next to the "I accept service" statement, write the date on the line next to the word "date" and sign on the line above the words "Defendant's Signature". Keep this Acceptance of Service, to be filed per the instructions in Step 2.

AFFIDAVIT OF SERVICE BY MAIL INTRODUCTION

This form is used when you choose to serve the Divorce Complaint on your spouse by mail. Mail one of the time-stamped copies of the Notice to Defend and Complaint to the other party by regular mail and the other one by certified mail, return receipt requested, restricted delivery (you must specify this type of mailing at the Post Office). Wait for the green card to be returned to you and if it is signed by the other party, make a copy of it for your records and tape the original, with the signature side showing, to a blank piece of paper. Fill out an Affidavit of Service by Mail and attach the paper with the green card on it.

If the certified mail is returned with the notation that it was refused, wait until it has been 15 days since you mailed the Complaint to the defendant. If the regular mailed envelope does not come back with the notation that it was undeliverable, fill out an Affidavit of Service by Mail. Make a copy of the certified mail envelope for your records and then attach the original envelope to the Affidavit of Service by Mail.

If the certified mail is returned with the notation that it was unclaimed, or the regular mailed envelope comes back with the notation that it was undeliverable, you must use a different form of service.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR AFFIDAVIT OF SERVICE BY MAIL

2. In Paragraph 1, write the date you mailed the Divorce Complaint to your spouse in the first blank, and your name in the second blank.
3. In Paragraph 2, check the appropriate line. If you check the first line, write the date Defendant signed the green card in the blank.
4. Write the date at the bottom, next to the word "Date" and sign the form on the line above the words "Plaintiff's signature".
5. Attach either the signed certified mail return receipt (green card) or the envelope showing Defendant's refusal, to the form.

AFFIDAVIT OF PERSONAL SERVICE INTRODUCTION

This form is used when you choose to serve the Divorce Complaint on your spouse by having a competent adult hand a time-stamped copy of the Notice to Defend and Complaint to him or her. You, yourself, cannot do this because “competent adult” is specifically defined in the Rules of Civil Procedure to mean someone at least 18 years of age who is not a party to the action and not a relative or employee of a party.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR AFFIDAVIT OF PERSONAL SERVICE

1. At the top of the “Affidavit of Personal Service”, write your name on the line above the word “Plaintiff” and your spouse’s name on the line above the word “Defendant”. Write your case number on the blank line after “No.”.
2. Give this form to the person who served the Complaint on your spouse after your spouse has been served. That person should write his or her name on the first line and write the date he or she handed the Complaint to your spouse on the second line. That person should then write the date of signing on the line next to the word “date” and sign on the line above the words “Signature of Person who Served Defendant”. Keep this Affidavit of Service, to be filed per the instructions in Step 2.

OPTIONAL FORM

PRAECIPE TO REINSTATE THE COMPLAINT INTRODUCTION

This form is used when you are unable to serve the Complaint on the Defendant within 30 days (or 90 days if they do not live in Pennsylvania). The date you file this Praecipe re-starts the clock for service and you will have another 30 days (or 90 days if they don't live in Pennsylvania) to serve the Complaint.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PRAECIPE TO REINSTATE THE COMPLAINT

1. At the top of the "Praecipe to Reinstate the Complaint", write your name on the line above the word "Plaintiff" and your spouse's name on the line above the word "Defendant". Write your case number on the blank line after "No.".
2. Write the date at the bottom, next to the word "Date" and sign the form on the line above the words "Plaintiff's signature".
3. File this form in the Prothonotary's office.

STEP THREE: Wait 90 days from the date the Notice to Defend, Complaint, and Verification were served.

The Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure require both parties to wait ninety (90) days from the service of the Complaint before signing and filing the consent forms.

How to Complete Step 3

Use this chart to calculate the date on which the consent forms may be signed and filed. Circle the date that service of the Complaint is made (the date the Acceptance of Service was signed, the date the green certified return receipt card was signed, or the date the Complaint was personally handed to the defendant, depending on which method of service was used), and then using that date as Day 1, count 90 days forward. Circle that date and write it in the space below. That date is the date on or after which you can sign and file the Affidavits of Consent. DO NOT SIGN THE CONSENTS UNTIL ON OR AFTER THE 90TH DAY!!
