

Requests for certified copies of a marriages may be made at any time. For recent marriages, certified copies may only be requested AFTER the duplicate (bottom section) has been returned by the officiant, the person who married you. There is a small fee for these copies. If you are a veteran it is free.

REAL ID has now been postponed for an enforcement date of May 7, 2023. If you have changed your name through marriage, then you may need a copy of the marriage certificate to comply with REAL ID.
